Recognizing Nonprofit Innovative Excellence

The NOVO Awards are open to not-for-profit organizations and recognize programs and individuals that have made a difference in the lives of the people they serve, produce outcomes that exemplify innovative excellence and feature best practices of not-for-profit businesses.

Awards are presented in three categories:

- Nonprofit program innovative excellence in an organization with a budget of less than $2 Million
- Nonprofit program innovative excellence in an organization with a budget of more than $2 Million
- Outstanding Board Leader that exemplifies the best in nonprofit board service

Eligibility Requirements

- The organization must be headquartered or have operations in Miami-Dade County.
- The organization must be a registered 501(C)(3) nonprofit organization.
- Only applications that meet all the requirements and criteria will be considered.

Application Requirements

- Deadline for application submission is JULY 8th, 2024
- Application must be complete
- Only one entry per organization may be submitted
- Copy of the organization's 501 (C)(3) IRS Determination Letter must accompany application
- Optional: one letter of support
- Application and supporting documentation must be emailed to athompson@miamichamber.com by July 8th, 2024.

Award Criteria

Innovative Program Excellence

- Program may be defined as the activities of the organization as a whole or a specific program within the organization
- Program must be a current program being offered by the nonprofit organization.
- Must further the mission of the organization
- Have specific and measurable outcomes
- Demonstrate innovation
- Meet community needs

Outstanding Board Leader

- Furthers the mission of the organization, demonstrates creative leadership and innovation
- Must be a currently active board member (paid staff are not eligible)
- Must be nominated by the nonprofit organization he/she serves or a board peer
- Has shown leadership among colleagues.
- The organization's board must be a governing board with fiduciary responsibility and not an advisory board.

Nominations will be reviewed, and the final selection made by a panel of judges. The top three finalists from each category will be recognized at the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce Trustee Luncheon on Wednesday, September 11, 2024. All finalists are invited to attend.

A cash award of $1,000 will be presented to the top finalist in each category:

- Nonprofit program innovative excellence in an organization with a budget of less than $2 million
- Nonprofit program innovative excellence in an organization with a budget of more than $2 million
- Outstanding Board Leader that exemplifies the best in nonprofit board service
